RALLY DESCRIPTION

Ozark Mountain Christmas is a sight to behold. Branson undergoes a dramatic transformation and literally becomes illuminated during November and December with more than five million dazzling lights. Experience the festive scenery, holiday lights, live music and special shows and activities designed just for the Christmas season. Join Adventure Caravans for eight fun filled days seeing the top Christmas shows and one of the most spectacular Christmas celebrations anywhere.

Tickets for the Christmas shows are hard for the average person to obtain. Adventure Caravans makes reservations up to two years in advance and guarantees reservations to the shows in greatest demand. We have them all and as with regular Branson Rallies, first class transportation takes us right to the door of all the entertainment shows. Our host escorts us to our reserved seats, with no long walks or waiting in lines. You get VIP treatment and the personal touch you can't get on your own.

Special Events and Tours

For a description of the College of the Ozarks Tour and Ralph Foster Museum Tour please refer to page 14.

Live Branson Entertainment: Branson performers join us at the RV park pavilion to perform either an afternoon matinee or a private evening show along with our "Ozark Hillbilly Dinner and Pickins."

Shepherd of the Hills, Trail of Lights Bus Tour: Presents miles of themed landscape and incredible displays with more than two thousand lighting exhibits that will put a smile on any visitor's face. The ABA voted "Ozark Mountain Christmas" as one of its "Top Events" in the United States.

Christmas Shows

Showboat Branson Belle: This dinner cruise was voted dinner show of the year three times in a row along with comedian, male vocalist and MC of the year. Experience a romantic cruise aboard this 1890's paddle wheel riverboat along with world class entertainment and a fantastic meal.

Dalena Ditto Classic Country Christmas: The most popular morning show in Branson with award-winning comedy, live band, dancing, glamorous costumes and much more. Audiences reel with excitement as this multi-talented star enchants guests with her quick wit, creative audience participation and amazing vocal ability.

Dixie Stampede Dinner Show: "Branson's most fun place to eat." Owner Dolly Parton guarantees it! The show features 32 magnificent horses, trick riding, ostrich races, slapstick comedy and buckboard competition along with pageantry and a huge musical production reminiscent of "Gone With the Wind."

Hughes Brothers Christmas Show: Step back in time for an old-fashioned Ozark Christmas. These talented brothers continually wow their audiences with fabulous harmonies, synchronized dance moves and hilarious antics. Then they add their talented wives and even their kids to the lineup. You laugh one minute and cry the next.

Spirit of Christmas Broadway Show: This new spectacular production is the talk of Branson. It is one of the most delightful and enchanting extravaganzas this side of New York.

George Dyer Show: Easily one of the finest Tenors in the world, living or dead. Such a breathtakingly beautiful voice and amazing performance you will not forget for the rest of your life.

Jim Stafford: Voted Comedian of the year three times. His show has hilarious comedy, spectacular effects and sensational music.

Six: Hottest new show in Branson, Six uses only their own voices to produce all the instrumental, rhythmic and harmonic sounds of the band and vocals.

Andy Williams Christmas Show: Millions of people have seen the Andy Williams show on television. The enduring cool 83 year old Andy Williams transcends all generations with his hip music, spectacular production and hilarious comedy. There's a thousand reasons to see Andy, but none more compelling than his special Christmas Show. It's one of the most popular Holiday Shows in the Country. See for yourself why they call "Mr. Christmas."
