TOUR DESCRIPTION

What an impressive tour! Check out the Itinerary in the next two columns. When you go south next winter, include this 41 day Southern Exposure tour in your plans. You visit the places that shaped America's past as well as the attractions that are popular today.

When traveling on your own, it is difficult to make arrangements for guided bus tours to see and do the activities you want. We make it easy for you. We went to great efforts to obtain the services of the best buses, guides and facilities available so you would receive a fantastic trip and have the most enjoyment possible. You don't have to worry about accommodations or reservations.

Quality time will be spent in Pensacola, Apalachicola Bay, Ocala, Brooksville, Orlando, Tampa and Florida City, Florida where we participate in tours and boat cruises to see the many highlights that each area has to offer.

Once in Key West Discover the gingerbread mansions, tin-roofed conch houses and have your picture taken at the "Southern Most Point" in the continental USA (only 90 miles from Cuba). Step aboard Fort Lauderdale's legendary Jungle Queen for a Bar-B-Que and Shrimp Dinner and Cruise up the river "Florida-Style".

Following a very special day at the Kennedy Space Center, we enjoy tours and boat cruises in St. Augustine, Savannah and Charleston. Stepping back into yesteryear, you will witness five centuries of historical mystery in St. Augustine, Florida. From the magnificence of Renaissance towers and turrets topped by red clay roofs to tabby cottages along brick lanes. Cruise the Great Okefenokee Swamp, one of America's most fascinating natural areas and the largest swamp in North America.

Ending in Historical Atlanta, the social, cultural and economical capital of the American South you will view the world's largest oil painting in one of only three cycloramas in existence. Renew your "Gone with the Wind" knowledge at Margaret Mitchell's House & Museum. Go behind the scenes at the headquarters of CNN and see Coca-Cola served the old-fashioned way in a 1930's soda shop at the World of Coca-Cola.

This is a fantastic tour. It includes 8 boat cruises, 16 meals and many tours, some of which you would not be able to see on your own. You only live once and this is a part of our great country you don't want to miss. All this and much, much more...

Note: The 2012 tour starts in Pensacola right after the Mardi Gras rally in New Orleans (See page 18). Get a $50 discount per tour for tying these two tours together in the same year.
