TOUR DESCRIPTION

What a neat tour! First, we see the "Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth" at the Calgary Stampede and then we head "North to Alaska" and "The Land of the Midnight Sun."

This tour features a ground shaking showcase of World Class Rodeo Action, the majestic beauty of the Canadian Rockies, spectacular Mountain Ranges, abundant free roaming wildlife and the pristine countryside of Alaska. We see glacier carved fjords, towering glaciers, cascading waterfalls, pioneer shows and native customs of the indigenous in the "Last American Frontier."

We rendezvous in Great Falls, Montana before crossing the Canadian Border and arriving in Hill Spring. Here we enjoy a welcome dinner, a bus tour to Head Smashed in Buffalo Jump, the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police tours and their famous musical ride before heading on to Calgary.

The city of Calgary goes all out once every year to present the "Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth." You can't help but have the time of your life at the world famous Calgary Stampede. It's an awesome spectacle of "How The West Was Won!" Besides a Wild West Barbecue Dinner you have guaranteed "VIP" seating for the Stampede activities including World Class Rodeo Events, World Championship Chuckwagon Races and the Outdoor Grandstand Spectacular. The show culminates with a dazzling combination of fireworks and laser lights - a fitting end to a wonderful day. The best part is that you can sit back, relax and not worry about a thing as we have made the reservations and done all of the planning for you. This vacation is yours. Let us do the work.

During our four days in Calgary we see the most important Stampede events. Check the Daily Itinerary for more details.

See description of the Calgary Stampede on pages 16 & 17

En route to Dawson Creek we visit Lake Louise which is an area surrounded by spectacular scenery and abundant wildlife. At Columbia Icefields we enjoy an out of this world specially designed snow coach tour of the Athabasca Glacier.
